

FLOYD BYRD WILL BE ELECTED BY OVER 2,000

Courier-Journal Predicts a Landslide to Democratic Candidate
Clark's Majority Placed as 1,000—Report in Full.

The Courier-Journal has had a complete report made by one of its Special Correspondents, of the political situation in the Tenth District, and in today's paper it confidently predicts the election of Floyd Byrd by over 2,000 majority. It has had a careful study made of the situation in each county and from this unbiased and nonpartisan report the election of Mr. Byrd is confidently predicted. The report in full is as follows:

Breathitt county—This county in the last election gave Langley a majority of 180, but it is practically conceded by the Republicans that Mr. Byrd will carry the county by from 100 to 150 majority; while the Democrats claim it anywhere from 400 to 600. The Democratic organization in this county is in fine shape and there seems to be a Democratic feeling of success throughout the entire county. This county will undoubtedly give a majority for Mr. Byrd anywhere from 300 to 400.

It is currently reported in Breathitt that Langley has promised the Jackson post-office to Blair McLin but will not have this appointment confirmed until after the election. In this way he hopes to retain the vote and influence of D. D. Hurst and his family. Hurst claims that Mr. Langley will re-appoint him post-master but he is about the only one in the county who believes it.

Clark county—The disaffection of the Republicans in this county is quite marked. Langley appointed Mr. John G. White post-master, and many Republicans say that he could not have made a more unpopular appointment if he had tried. This appointment has split the Republican party wide open, and many of the most influential and best working Republicans have openly announced for Byrd, and are working for him night and day.

Last week a negro independent Republican Club was organized and unanimously endorsed Byrd. This county gave a Democratic majority of about 600 in the last congressional race, but it will give this year any where from 1000 to 1200. The Democrats are organized and encouraged while the Republicans, without leaders or workers, are correspondingly depressed and disorganized.

Elliott county—There is no special amount of enthusiasm displayed by either party in this county, though the leaders of the Democratic forces say they will return the usual Democratic majority of from 500 to 600, and the Republicans do not seem to dispute this; therefore it is practically conceded by both parties that Elliott will give a Democratic majority of about 500.

Floyd county—The battle for votes has been waged in this and the other counties of the Sandy Valley with more vim, energy and enthusiasm than in any election since the days of Press Taulbee. This county, the home of Langley, gave him in 1908 a majority of 182, but the Democrats claim that they will wipe that majority out and carry it for Byrd by at least four hundred. The mass of the Republican voters, outside of the immediate workers, claim that Byrd will not be able to carry it by over 200. Some of the Republican workers claim that it will be a set-off, while others claim that Langley will carry it by from 100 to 150.

When Mr. Byrd spoke in this county he was met at the depot with a brass band, and by a crowd, variously estimated at from 1000 to 1200 people. He spoke to the largest crowd that has ever assembled at Prestonsburg to hear a political speech, and at the close was taken off of the stand and carried around the square on the shoulders of his enthusiastic followers. The enthusiasm is all in favor of Byrd in this county, and it will undoubtedly give a majority for him anywhere from 250 to 400. Hon. Frank Hopkins, who lives here and who represented this district in Congress for two terms, is one of the most enthusiastic of Byrd's workers in the Tenth District.

Estill county—In 1908 Estill gave Langley a majority of 519 but this will be greatly reduced in the coming election. Langley got a bad start in this county in the campaign. He had made an extensive advertisement for speaking, and the "stand

KICKED FROM FIRE ESCAPE

One Woman is Killed and Several Persons Are Injured By Fires in Sections of New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—One woman was killed, several persons were injured, and there were numbers of narrow escapes in fires in various sections of this city Friday. Mrs. Rebecca Aener was the woman killed. She is declared by witnesses to have been kicked from the third floor of a fire escape while she was fleeing with her husband and children from a fire set by an incendiary in the Clinton street tenement in which they lived. The woman's assailant escaped unidentified.

The damages are estimated at one hundred thousand dollars.

CITY COUNCIL HOLDS MEETING

Matter of Salaries of Mayor J. A. Hughes and Judge F. P. Pendleton is Discussed.

At the meeting of the City Council Friday night the matter of the salary of Mayor J. A. Hughes and Judge F. P. Pendleton which caused quite a bit of comment when the present council took their seats last January was up for discussion again. From the tone of the discussion it is probable that at the next meeting of the body the two gentlemen will receive an increase, if not the entire amount of their contention. Mr. Jones made a motion that each be allowed the amount of salary fixed by the old council but no second was made and no vote taken. Mr. C. G. Bush, however, stated that he was in favor of doing the right thing in the matter and asked that the matter be postponed until the next meeting.

A great deal of time was devoted to paying the accounts Friday night and very little business of importance was transacted.

All councilmen were present with the exception of Dr. M. S. Browne.

Judge F. P. Pendleton and Chief of Police Woodson McCord reported 59 cases tried during the month of October; fines amounting to $210 imposed; costs rendered $259.30; old bonds $17.50. Mr. J. M. Hodgkin treasurer reported a balance of $4,553.11 in the treasury. City Clerk S. B. Tracy reported $58.52 collected in taxes which he had placed in the proper funds and filed receipts from the treasurer for same. A balance of $3,900 was reported in the school sinking fund and $4,535.48 in the sewerage sinking fund. Mr. S. H. Rutledge, city engineer, reported that the past month has been devoted almost entirely to sewerage construction work. He also reported two building permits during October. He reported that the construction of the sewerage system had gone as far as C street between Broadway and Lexington avenue; that the amount of work done by the E. T. Lewis Company amounted to $1,599.66.

Mr. J. T. Stokely reported that he had taken up the notes at the Peoples State Bank amounting to $11,660.80 and presented them to be destroyed in the presence of the council. J. Lights were ordered placed on Alabama street and one at the corner of Main and French avenue.

It was ordered that two bonds of one thousand each be allowed E. T. Lewis Company with interest from April 1st for the work done on the sewerage system as reported by consulting engineer. It was ordered that the city engineer act with the sewerage committee in employing his help.

The City Treasurer was directed to present bonds Nos. 3, 4 and 5 of $1,000 each and to demand payment in cash for same with interest at 4 1/2 per cent. from April 1st and to place the amount to the credit of the sewerage construction fund.

The E. T. Lewis Company proposed to surrender sewerage bonds 3, 4 and 5 with interest at 4 1/2 per cent. amounting to $3,079.87. This proposition was accepted and the treasurer was ordered to pay for same out of the sinking fund and the clerk was directed to keep same and destroy them in the presence of the council at its next meeting. When the city loans its sinking fund out it gets out 2 per cent and this will save the city 2 1/2 per cent. Crossings were ordered placed as follows: One across Broadway from Kerr's mill to the post-office; another on Broadway from Massie's shoe store to Grubbs & Benton and one on Fairfax from residence of Mr. J. M. Woods to the old Baptist church.

The Clark County Board of Control were ordered to appear instantaneously before the Board of Council to show cause if they can, why they should not be assessed with $250,000 worth of tobacco which was in Clark County subject to taxation on April 1st, 1910, which property was omitted by Assessor and Board of Supervisors. Mr. D. L. Pendleton appeared for the board and discussed the matter. Mr. Jones moved that it be charged with two million pounds of tobacco valued at 7 cents, a total of $1,750, subject for taxation that year. The motion was carried unanimously and Mr. F. H. Haggard was directed to collect this amount.

Mr. J. Smith Hays was allowed $650 commission for causing the sale of the sewerage bonds to be made to the E. T. Lewis Company.

Mr. S. H. Rutledge was allowed $416.66 back pay and $150 for October.

Another ordinance was passed with reference to the presenting of bills to the city.

The street and alley committee was directed to see to opening an alley on Hill street also one back of the opera house running from Fairfax to Hickman.

It was ordered that John Boone be refunded $3 for poll taxes paid by him.

SEN. MCCREARY IS INTERVIEWED

And Gives Out Answer to the Scurrilous Circular That Has Been Sent Over the State.

In an interview published in the Lexington Herald, Senator James B. McCreary answers the scurrilous circular affecting him that has been sent broadcast over the State. The following are the main points of the interview:

"I have never heretofore given any attention to unsigned circulars. The failure of the author to sign his name shows fraud and falsehood. The circular scattered broadcast over the State in the last few days, and just before an important Congressional election headed 'Parisan,' published at Paris, Tenn., and mailed at Newport, Ky., has a column with the caption 'Resurrected by Governor McCreary,' and it presents so many falsehoods and is so scurrilous that it requires some notice.

"The circular says 'Beckham and Italy will be resurrected by ex-Governor McCreary, with the aid of Mr. John C. Mayo.' The Beckham and Mayo combination want McCreary to run in the race for Governor so that if he gets elected they can take the affairs of the State in hand and control all of the offices and organizations. They expect to accomplish this by electing Rufus Venzon Lieutenant Governor."

"I have not seen or communicated with Governor Beckham in a number of months. When I delivered by invitation an address at Frankfort, Ky., last February at the unveiling and dedication of the Goebel monument, I met Governor Beckham for a few moments in the opera house. He has never announced, according to my information, who he will support for Governor, and I have no means of knowing his position on any question relating to the race for Governor. I may say the same with regard to Percy Italy. I have seen him only a few times in months and he has not told me who he will support for any State office. I have heard Rufus Venzon say he would not be a candidate for Governor or for any other office.

"In this connection I wish to say I want and I will seek the support of all Democrats. No candidate for a State office can be elected unless he has the cordial support of practically all the Democrats in Kentucky. The Democratic majority in Kentucky is small and we lost the State at the last election of State officers by about 18,600 votes.

"I wish to say also that I have made no alliance with any candidate or with any individual in connection with my race for Governor."

CELEBRATED TENOR WILL POSITIVELY APPEAR

Since the announcement has been made that the Sheehan English Grand Opera Company will give a performance of Verdi's "Il Trovatore" at the Winchester opera house, Thursday evening, November 10th, numerous inquiries have been made as to whether or not Joseph F. Sheehan, America's greatest tenor, will sing at the performance here and the management take this means of stating that Mr. Sheehan himself will positively sing and furthermore will guarantee to refund money should the famous star not appear.

Inasmuch as Mr. Sheehan's contracts call for his appearance in Chicago and Boston practically exclusively for the next two years this will no doubt be the last opportunity we will have of hearing his golden voice for some time.

In spite of the fact of the great tenor singing himself as well as his entire all star cast including Miss Elaine De Sellos, the wonderful French contralto, Miss Grace Nelson the American singer whose remarkable voice has caused a sensation throughout this country and abroad, Louis La Valle, the famous English baritone from the Royal Opera Company, London, England, and the entire balance of principals as well as the excellent chorus, popular prices will prevail in order to give all an opportunity of hearing what is no doubt the greatest performance of "Il Trovatore" ever given in the English language.

DECIDES FOR CONTESTANTS

Lisle Will Case Which Has Attracted Wide Attention Over the County, Comes to Close.

The Claiborne Lisle will case which has consumed the entire week came to a close Saturday morning when the jury after being out only a short while came in and returned a verdict, finding for the contestants.

The case, which started Monday, has attracted the attention of the whole county and each day the courthouse was filled with interested spectators. The interest was due to the popularity of Mr. Lisle, who during his life was a prominent farmer and a business man of unusual ability. Both sides in the litigation were prominent and had a large number of friends who were interested in the outcome of the case.

The hearing of testimony was begun Monday morning. Judge J. M. Benton, the regular judge, declined to act and Judge Walker, of Danville, was appointed by Governor Wilson. Both sides were well represented. Attorneys Pendleton, Bush and Bush and Col. John R. Allen for the contestants, and Attorneys J. M. Stevenson, J. F. Winn, Robert Hardin and F. H. Haggard for the proponents.

The distinguished gentleman was given a hearty welcome. The entertainment was delightful all the way through, and the audience was enthusiastic.

Being a Southerner himself, the Southern dialect comes to Mr. Read freely and naturally and almost unconsciously, and his interpretation of the negro dialect is especially true and rich. He is equally at home in representing the Kentucky colonel. Mr. Raed is a man whose proportions are very large and he towers above the man of ordinary stature like a giant. His personal appearance is such that he could not but attract attention anywhere. His hair is long and black and somewhat bushy. He is bright of humor at all times, and his stock of witty remarks and bright stories is never near the point of exhaustion.

His impersonation of "Old Lim Jucklin," a village wit and philosopher, is one of the finest works of the kind ever presented.

Opie Read has a reputation that is world wide and his works, which have been before the people for many years, are read wherever clean humor is appreciated.

BROWN'S EXPENSE ACCOUNT

State Auditor James refused to allow an expense account of $413.95 turned in by Prison Commissioner Eli Brown. In this account are expenses incurred by Mr. Brown while a delegate to the International Prison Congress under appointment of Governor Wilson.

Included in the bill is $81 for meals in New York and other cities where the prison congress delegates visited, as well as a charge of $21.20 for baggage, porter's fees, etc., as well as $27.80 for cabs and taxicabs in New York, Louisville, Washington, Buffalo, and other places.

The law providing for the expenses of prison commissioners declares that the necessary traveling expenses of the commissioners shall be paid, but Auditor James holds that trip to the prison congress was not a part of the necessary expenses, and that the appointment stated specifically that it did not carry with it any payment on the part of the State.

The expense account of Commissioner Brown was approved by Commissioner McCutcheon.

The present Prison Commission is doubtless the worst that ever disgraced this or any other State. This attempt to collect money from the State is on a par with other things done by the Commission.

It has inaugurated a system of assessments on the employees of the prisons that is but little short of highway robbery. Even the women employees are not exempt from their graft.

We read in the Bible, Rev. 21-8, that "all liars shall have their part in the lake that burneth with fire and brimstone." We are much concerned for the fate of some of our newspaper friends over what they have said about the swiftness and other things during this year's campaign.

Morgan county—Morgan is normally Democratic from 600 to 800, and can always be depended upon for that amount. In 1908, Mr. Davis, the Democratic nominee who lives in that county, received a majority of 639. This year the Democrats are active and well organized. The chairman of the County Campaign Committee is Hon. Joe M. Kendall, formerly Congressman from this district. Mr. Kendall is enthusiastically for Mr. Byrd, and is working night and day. He predicts a majority of at least 800.

The Republicans have made a hard fight in this county, and while they claim publicly that the vote will be greatly reduced, yet privately they admit that Byrd will carry it by from 500 to 600. It is safe to say that this county will be carried by Mr. Byrd by at least 700 majority.

Montgomery county—This county in 1908 gave Davis a majority of 165.

The Republican District Campaign headquarters are in Mt. Sterling, and their workers are bending every effort to make this county a set-off this year. The most sanguine do not expect any better result than a set-off while the Democrats confidently claim and assert that Byrd will carry it by 300 majority.

Pike county—Here the battle has raged the hottest. In 1908 Langley carried the county by 1386, but in no county in the district has there been such an insurgent Republican movement as here, nor have the Democrats a better organization than in this one. The Republicans have sent here their best speakers and most prominent men, and the Democrats have met them at every point and gone them one better. During the past week the Democrats have had Hon. Robert Friend, of Irvine, speaking in each precinct in one portion of the county, and Hon. E. D. Stephenson, of Pikeville, and W. T. Stafford, the insurgent Republican of Johnson county, speaking in each precinct in the other end of the county. Today, (Saturday), is the grand Democratic rally day at Pikeville, with Senator McCreary as the chief speaker.

Powell county—This county is very close. In 1908 it gave a Democratic majority of 40, but this year the Democrats are much better organized and are enthusiastic, and confident that Byrd will carry it by at least 100. The Republicans do not seriously dispute this claim. It seems to be conceded on all sides that Powell will go Democratic anywhere from 100 to 150.

 SOCIETY Beautiful Party.

Misses Katherine and Mary Farney of near Chilesburg, were hostesses for a charming Hallowe'en masquerade given Monday evening, in honor of their visitors, Misses Eleanor Wood, of Paris and Myrtle Keith of Lexington.

The house was lavishly decked in trailing vines, flowers and Hallowe'en suggestions, whose quaint arrangement lent charm and weird autumn realism to the occasion. The entranced hall was hung entirely in white, making a ghostly witch den, with bats and owls for decorations and large pumpkins grinning from all available nooks. In the back a huge iron pot, supported by rustic sticks and lighted with burning alcohol cast an uncanny glow over the surrounding of the fortune teller tent.

The guests were received by Miss Katherine Farney, gowned as a witch with flowing hair, carrying a broom and a large black horse-cat. Miss Farney, as a fairy, conducted them to the dressing room, from which the girls emerged dressed in sheets, pillow cases, and masks. On entering the parlor where the young men were assembled, a jolly time ensued in which the young men were given prizes for the largest number of correct names of the ghosts.

Late in the evening refreshments of hot chocolate, salad wafers, fruits, and bon bons were served from a flower laden table in the dining room.

After games, music and fortune telling, the crowd dispersed at a late hour. Those present were: Misses Eleanor Wood, Myrtle Keith, Florence Sweeney, Nancy Carroll, Rosella Gibson, Magda Miller, Fannie and Edith Barker, Hellene White, Lucille Moores, Madia and Rena Christian, Lillian Eddiean; Messrs. Joe Simpson, Andrew Johns, Maxwell and Edward Lyle, Will Taylor, All Smitha, Bob and Joe Moores, Louis Barker, Harry Redmon, R. P. Smitha, Marshall and Shelly Moores, Leonard Rye, Forrest and Tipton Stevens, Leslie Blankenship, Sherman Crim, Ed. Shannon, W. J. Hough, Paul and Chas. White and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Farney.

Mr. J. Roberts, editor of the Leader, which provoked a spirited response from ex-Mayor Clarence E. Woods, of Richmond, Ky., who happened to be present as a listener, and who came to the defense of Messrs. Roberts and Breckinridge.

Mr. Wallace declared that Messrs. Breckinridge and Roberts had espoused the side of the Commission Plan for "what they could get out of it" and that neither was "acting in good faith." He charged that the opponents of the Commission Plan could not get a fair hearing in the columns of either the Leader or Herald, without pay, because Messrs. Breckinridge and Roberts favored the Commission Plan, and were too partisan to be decent to the other side.

Mr. Wallace took up the administration of Mr. Roberts as Collector of Internal Revenue and gave it as his judicial opinion that "while Roberts was Collector he did not earn fifteen cents of the salary paid him by the government."

These are fair samples of Mr. Wallace's "eloquent arguments" against the Commission Plan, which evidently carried great weight, as they were heartily applauded.

Ex-Mayor Clarence E. Woods, of Richmond, who was in the audience, and who sat a patient listener during Attorney Wallace's tirade, at the conclusion of his remarks secured recognition from the chairman to address the meeting. Mayor Woods' speech was a veritable bombshell in the camp of the Antis, and threw them into consternation.

Mr. Woods made Mr. Wallace "look like thirty cents," when he had finished paying his respects to him.

The speaker defended Messrs. Breckinridge and Roberts for what he referred to as their public-spirited, patriotic cause, and said that no better or cleaner or more honest papers were published south of Mason and Dixon's line than the Herald and Leader, and that their editors, Messrs. Breckinridge and Roberts, are among the most liberal-minded, progressive, patriotic citizens he had ever known.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Is no "cure-all" humbug, but is made for just one purpose—to cure the weaknesses, painful disorders and irregularities of the womanly organism. It is

THE ONE REMEDY for these ailments, sold by druggists, devised and gotten up by a regularly graduated physician of vast experience in treating woman's peculiar diseases and is carefully adapted to work in harmony with her delicate organization, by an experienced and skilled specialist in her maladies.

THE ONE REMEDY for woman's ailments, sold by druggists, which contains neither alcohol (which to most women is the rankest poison) or other injurious or habit-forming drugs.

THE ONE REMEDY for women, the composition of which is so perfect and good that its makers are not afraid to print its every ingredient, in plain English on its outside bottle-wrapper, and attest the correctness of the same under oath—thus taking its users into their full confidence, and warranting physicians in prescribing it in their worst cases, which they do very largely.

It is foolish as well as dangerous to take medicine the composition of which you know nothing. Therefore, don't let a dishonest druggist prevail on you to accept a secret nostrum for this professionally approved medicine of known composition. Every ingredient in its make-up has the strongest endorsement of the leading medical men of all the several schools of practice. Send postal card request for free Booklet of same.

Every woman may write fully and confidentially to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and may be sure that her case will receive careful, conscientious, confidential consideration, and that the best medical advice in the world will be given to her, absolutely free.

In addition to this free advice, Dr. Pierce will send a fine French cloth-bound copy of his great 1000-page book, "The Common Sense Medical Adviser," to any woman who will send 31 one-cent stamps to pay the cost of mailing only.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. They work in harmony with "Favorite Prescription" when needed as a gentle laxative. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

LOOK CAREFULLY

at the illustration we present here; as a work of art it is quite different from the ordinary advertising illustration, as you can easily see. Just because the newspaper, generally speaking, is a passing thing, this paper thrown away to make room for the next one, is no reason why you shouldn't appreciate the full beauty of this work

Copyright Hart Schaffner & Marx

But it's interesting for another reason. It illustrates, as well as you'll ever see it done, how correctly designed and properly tailored clothes look on a man. The only way to get a better idea of it, is to step in here some day and ask to be shown our fine suits and overcoats for fall and winter. When you see the clothes themselves, you'll realize that not even such art as this does full justice to them; they're really better than can be illustrated or described.

The principal figure in our illustration shows the new "Shape-maker" model, designed especially for young men; and you get here a very accurate idea of the smart, stalwart lines of this fine style. We want you young fellows to notice it particularly; the lines of the coat—the way it "drapes"; the curve of the shoulder and the back; the length and flare of the skirts. Note also the "peggy" lines of the trousers. It's chiefly in the trousers that this new model differs from other styles; they're shaped around the waist and over the hips, in such a way that belt or suspenders are not necessary; the trousers stay in place without being held up.

This is a new idea; an exclusive Hart Schaffner & Marx idea; it's a fresh development in the making of men's clothes that's undoubtedly the best thing ever done. We want you to see it here. We have the Shape-maker and the new Varsity in all the best fabrics; nobody can make such clothes as Hart Schaffner & Marx make them; and nobody else in this town but this store can sell them to you.

LANGLEY AS SEEN BY THE PRESS

LANGLEY'S PET MEASURE

Special to Courier-Journal.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 9, 1910.—Representatives Langley of Kentucky, and Rucker, of Missouri, were circulating a petition today on their own respective sides of the House, addressed to the Chairman of the Committee on Invalid Pensions, asking that the committee fix an early day for a hearing on Mr. Langley's bill or some similar measure opposing to pension the State militiamen who aided in the suppression of the rebellion. The petition was numerously signed by both Democratic and Republican members from Kentucky, West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Kansas, Missouri and one or two other States.

This is Mr. Langley's pet measure and he expressed himself this afternoon as much gratified and encouraged by the large number of members regardless of politics, who have agreed to aid in pressing the measure. There have been two or three partial hearings heretofore, and the purpose of Langley and Rucker by this move is to get a full hearing for all of the States interested. There is a delegation from Kansas here now who have come all the way from there to urge the passage of this bill.

LANGLEY DEPLORES PREJUDICES

Special dispatch to the Enquirer.

WASHINGTON, March 20, 1910.—After the completion of bills on the unanimous calendar today General Keifer of Ohio, called up the pension appropriation bill, and the House at once resolved itself into Committee of the Whole and took up the consideration of this measure.

An interesting speech was made by Representative Langley, of Kentucky. He began by deprecating the tendency which has been shown by some men in high places recently to seek to revive what he termed "the prejudices and passions of the old rebellion."

"There are some men," he declared, "who do not seem to realize that the war is over, although the echo of the last shot died away nearly half a century ago."

Turning to his Republican colleagues he said:

"Let us live for the present and the future, and not is the memories of the dead and buried past."

He paid an eloquent tribute to the Southern people, and to the old Confederates, who, he declared, have accepted the results of the war, in good faith and are contributing their share toward making the nation happier, better and greater. This sentiment was liberally applauded on both sides of the House.

Langley called attention to the fact that over 100 member of the House had introduced pension bills, all designed to make the present system more liberal, and intimated that a good many of these measures evidently were introduced for home consumption.

He contended that the soldiers could not be blamed for becoming dubious of the motives of members who co-operated with the regular United States forces and rendered the same service to the Union as that was rendered by the regular troops."

Whether Mr. Langley's hopes regarding this militia measure will be realized or not, it must be admitted that he has made a good fight for it.

TENTH DISTRICT MAN PROMOTED

Upon the request of Hon. John W. Langley, the Commissioner of Pensions, has appointed Dr. Addison R. Hekon, of Sandy Hook, Elliott county, to be assistant medical referee of the Pension Bureau at a salary of $2,250 per annum. He has been in the Pension office a number of years on a salary of $1,600.—Mr. Sterling Gazette, Nov. 28, 1907.

IN FOREFRONT OF FIGHT.

Congressman Langley is in the forefront of the fight for the present tariff schedule on lumber and has achieved considerable success so far. Mr. Langley has gained a prestige and influence in the House that few Congressmen have attained from the mountain districts of Kentucky. Congressman Langley and his associate Representative from this section, are in full accord and have stood valiantly together in the fight for the maintenance of the present tariff rates on lumber.—Ashland Commercial Ind., Feb. 20, 1909.

FORAKER ATTACKS

"NEW NATIONALISM"

Gives Words of Praise for Framers of the Constitution and Discusses "The King Business."

DAYTON, O., Nov. 5.—Former Senator Joseph B. Foraker returned to his attack on the "New Nationalism" with his reappearance in the Ohio campaign at the Soldier's Home here Thursday, though he avoided direct mention of Colonel Roosevelt.

The former Senator observed also that the "tendency in some quarters to condemn the judiciary and rob it of part of its functions is pernicious, and should receive a quick and decisive rebuke from the voters whenever opportunity arises."

He further declared that while the Democratic party lacks the power to work damage "sometimes we find a Republican who has new ideas and wants to press those ideas until dissatisfaction is created in the Republican party."

With words of high praise for the framers of the constitution Foraker came to the matter of "this King business" so entitled by Job Hedges of New York.

"These men," he said, "did not like the thought of placing power in the hands of one man. They did not want a king. They had come from lands over the sea to escape kings and they settled the question forever by deciding to confer the powers of Government on three departments—the legislative, the executive and the judicial."

"The farmers of the constitution made every effort to avoid the centralization of power and the voters should be warned against following any doctrine of centralization, no matter by whom expounded."

CUT OUT ROOSEVELT CANCER.

CORTLAND, N. Y., Nov. 5.—"Let us cut out the cancer of Rooseveltism," said former Judge Alton B. Parker in a reply made here Thursday night to what he called the "astounding" address of Senator Elton Root, delivered last week at Carnegie Hall, New York City.

"That was a most astounding address which Mr. Root delivered. 'Dare not revolt or worse shall befall you; accept your chains or feel the lashings or be crushed; assert the right to name your executives and that right shall be definitely taken from you.' That in all fairness is the sense of his speech as it relates to the issue of Rooseveltism."

"Such is the special leader and his client we know better than before, and when we consider the past relations between them, the hollowness and lack of sincerity in the suggestion that Mr. Taft's nomination by Republicans of 1912 is in any wise involved in a rejection of Roosevelt in

ROOSEVELT TO ANSWER DIX.

"ALLIANCE, O., Nov. 5.—Theodore Roosevelt, enroute to Chicago Thursday gave out a statement on the train in reply to the speech made by John A. Dix, Democratic candidate for Governor of New York, in New York last night. Mr. Roosevelt said:

"Mr. Dix becomes exceeding valorous about me the moment I leave the State. I'll answer him when I get back. I call the attention of all workers to the fact that having in effect defended the barge shop decision which forbade New York State to interfere to prevent workingmen laboring an excessive number of hours under unhygienic conditions, he now in effect decides a decision declaring workingmen's compensation also unconstitutional."

With words of high praise for the framers of the constitution Foraker came to the matter of "this King business" so entitled by Job Hedges of New York.

"These men," he said, "did not like the thought of placing power in the hands of one man. They did not want a king. They had come from lands over the sea to escape kings and they settled the question forever by deciding to confer the powers of Government on three departments—the legislative, the executive and the judicial."

"The farmers of the constitution made every effort to avoid the centralization of power and the voters should be warned against following any doctrine of centralization, no matter by whom expounded."

NO MORE DANDRUFF

PHILLIPS SELLS THE REMEDY THAT IS GUARANTEED TO KILL ALL DANDRUFF.

Of course you and every intelligent reader of the News knows that dandruff is caused by a germ.

Dr. Sagerbund, the great French physician, proved this beyond a doubt.

In order to rid your scalp of filthy dandruff you must kill the germ. There is a hair dressing called Parisian Sage which is now sold in every town in America, that is guaranteed to eradicate dandruff, stop falling hair, splitting hair and scalp itch in two weeks, or money back.

If you have dandruff get a large 50 cent bottle today and rid yourself of it.

Remember that if dandruff germs are not destroyed in time, the hair will surely fall out and baldness will follow.

Here's proof of what Parisian Sage has done: It will do more. It is the finest hair grower and hair dressing in the world, and people who use it regularly will never grow bald. Mrs. John Stoner, Evansville, Ind., writes on June 2, 1910:

"I used Parisian Sage and found it very successful: it removes dandruff and gives the hair life. I only used two bottles. I know it is a cure for dandruff."

Large bottles 50 cents at Phillips and druggists everywhere. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every carton.
